

Riebling

Jutta M. Frankfurter

Of Counsel

jutta.frankfurter@rieblinglaw.com

Washington, DC

p +1.202.725.6721

Jutta M. Frankfurter counsels clients on trademark and trade name matters, including the development and management of trademark portfolios, and resolving conflicts over disputed marks and names. She employs solid legal skills and strategic solutions to establishing and enforcing rights in trademarks against infringement, dilution and counterfeiting. With over 20 years of experience as a corporate and securities attorney, Jutta leverages her extensive regulatory and transactional knowledge to coordinate trademark clearance, trademark prosecution and enforcement practice with the real-life business needs of her clients. Jutta serves as Head of the Business and Finance Group, advising on an extensive variety of business and operational issues including corporate strategy, organization and launch of new entities, cybersecurity and data breach policies and procedures, intellectual property, due diligence and regulatory compliance.

The World Trademark Review's WTR 1000 (2022) ranked Jutta as a leader in the intellectual property community as recognized by her peers. Jutta is a German native speaker, avid golfer and sailor.

Education

JD, University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law

MBA, California State University, Sacramento

BS, summa cum laude, University of Maryland

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia, Texas and Maryland

Memberships

International Trademark Association